CHILDREN FIRST

CPB February 2022 Health Assessment Presentation

Principle

“The Corporate Parenting responsibilities of local authorities include having a duty under section 22(3) of the Children Act 1989 to safeguard and promote the welfare of the children they look after, including eligible children and those placed for adoption, regardless of whether they are placed in or out of authority or the type of placement. This includes the promotion of the child’s physical, emotional and mental health and acting on any early signs of health issues.”

(DFE Promoting the Health and Well-being of Looked After Children)

Looked after children share many of the same health risks as their peers – but often to a greater degree

Looked-after children and care leavers are between four and five times more likely to self-harm in adulthood. They are also at five-fold increased risk of all childhood mental, emotional and behavioural problems, and six to seven times more likely to have conduct disorders (Research in Practice)

WCFF Leadership Team

WCFF Background

- WCFF was registered as an Independent Fostering Agency on the 1st October 2019.
- Ofsted carried out an Assurance Visit between 16-17 December 2020, where no serious or widespread concerns identified.
- During these Inspections, WCFF as an Independent fostering agency must meet the requirements of the Fostering Regulations 2011, and the Fostering National Minimum Standards 2011.
- If we do not, Ofsted identify clearly what must be done by setting out requirements, compliance or enforcement action.
- Ofsted use recommendations to indicate where practice can improve, and these are always related to the relevant NMS and regulation/s mentioned above.

Ofsted Inspection 20-24 September 2021

Overall experiences and progress of children and young people: Requires improvement to be good

“Managers have not yet adapted to operating as a fostering agency” – Lack of clarity about Roles and Responsibilities.

“Foster Carers’ experience of support and supervision from the fostering agency is mixed.”

“Despite the shortfalls identified, children are making progress. This is because of the care and commitment of their foster carers, who ensure that children make progress in all areas of their life. Children feel part of their foster family. They are happy and settled, they enjoy a range of activities and have positive experiences of family life.”

How well children and young people are helped and protected: Requires improvement to be good

“Safe Care Plans and Risk Assessments for children remain inconsistent in quality and content”

“There continue to be omissions in the safe recruitment of staff. Managers do not have clear oversight of recruitment arrangements”

“Foster carers have access to a range of training. This includes training to support their understanding of a range of safeguarding themes. There continues to be a group of foster carers who do not access this training. Managers have plans to address this, supported by a specific staff member who has oversight of training and development for foster carers. As a result, this is an improving picture.”

The effectiveness of leaders and managers: Inadequate

“Managers rely heavily on systems established during the previous operating model of the fostering service. This significantly restricts managers’ oversight of the fostering service at all levels.”

“The fostering agency does not have a foster carer register”

“Managers have still not implemented a system that enables them to consistently monitor serious incidents or report these to Ofsted in a timely way.”

“Staff receive regular supervision that enables them to reflect on their practice.”

“The recent introduction of a specialist recruitment officer is aimed at improving this area of the service.”

“Management oversight of complaints is not consistent, and records do not include details of all of the complaints”.

“Staff feel well supported by managers and have manageable caseloads.”

“Managers ensure that the assessments of prospective foster carers are sufficiently detailed. This enables the fostering panel to make a recommendation of suitability.”
